Mobile Is Back (Generation 0) - Nintendo DS The choice of a successor to the Dreamcast in Japan has been narrow from the start; Nintendo, not Sega or Sony, was the one who won the race, but now the two console giants square off for control of the domestic market as they look to return to grace with the home release of some of their best-known franchises: Smash Bros. for Wii U and 3DS, Mario Kart 8, Captain Toad: Treasure Tracker, New Super Mario Bros. U, and Pokémon Omega Ruby/Alpha Sapphire. In the late 1990s, Nintendo's GameCube became a console milestone in video game history, claiming a number of firsts while revitalizing Nintendo as a major player in the industry. However, over the years the Wii has taken a commanding lead, and the GameCube is again just another Nintendo console. Nintendo's position in the console market is now secure, but if that wasn't reason enough to justify interest in the GameCube, then the lineup of f678ea9f9e
